

Our company which to improve to your business not only through quality products, support and consulting, but also by means of training and experience exchange for your personnel. With this aim our specialists organize workshops, trainings, seminars, round-tables, conferences, etc. in open and corporate formats. So you may choose for your employees one or more training programs that meet your requirements. Our specialists will provide you with full information concerning the topic of the course, the duration, the schedule, as well as concerning knowledge and skills, supposed to be gained by your employees after training completion. We can also arrange corporate training as per your request basing on our standard programs and adopted to your business needs and goals you establish for your employees before training. Hence you benefit not only from new knowledge and experience of your employees, but also real decision to your business problems and practical advices, worked-out together with your employees. When preparing new course or program our specialists ensure full range of services, starting from methodological and educational materials to arrangement of the accommodation, meals, transfers, etc. if required. It is very important to make the employees of the company feel they are a team. We supplement our trainings with informal or cultural activities in accordance with client's wishes and personal characteristics of each participant and the whole team to reach the above objective. Apart we may arrange any corporate events for your company, including internal trainings, open houses, negotiations abroad and formal receptions, etc. Our specialists will professionally plan the event, prepare presentation materials related to the event thematic (business meeting, friendly visit, etc.), take each detail into consideration and provide overall supervision of the event to ensure the success hereof.